

PUBLIC PROCUREMENT: Global Revolution V

9-10 September 2010,
University of Copenhagen, Denmark

Public Procurement: Global Revolution V is part of a successful series of conferences on the “Global Revolution” theme. Public Procurement: Global Revolution V brings together over 60 recognized speakers from over 30 different countries and representatives from most of the major international institutions working in public procurement. The conference provides you with the chance to learn from in-depth discussions and new research on current issues within procurement regulation, and a unique chance to network with senior professionals and academics at a high profile event.

Conference themes:

- Key issues and developments in EU public procurement.
- Procurement regulation in the 21st century: challenges and issues for practitioners in the developed and developing worlds.
- Globalisation and harmonisation in public procurement regulation.
- Procurement practice and academia: the role of universities in procurement education and reform.

For full programme and registration please visit the conference website: www.jura.ku.dk/globalrev5 after the 16th of June 2010. Please note that this conference has limited capacity and the previous conferences have all sold out.

Conference programme directors:

- Prof. Steen Treumer, Professor of Public Procurement Law, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen.
- Prof. Sue Arrowsmith, Professor of Public Procurement Law, University of Nottingham; CIPS Foundation Professor.

The Global Revolution conference has been funded through the European Commission's Asia Link Programme, as part of the project for an EU-Asia Inter-university Network for Teaching & Research in Public Procurement Regulation. The project consortium is led by the University of Nottingham (UK); other consortium members are University of Copenhagen (Denmark), Copenhagen Business School (Denmark), Central University of Finance and Economics (China), University of Malaysia (Malaysia) and Xijiang University of Finance and Economics (China).